

McDonald Murrmann Center Moves to Racquet Club

The McDonald Murrmann Center for Skin, Laser & Healthy Aging is moving to The Racquet Club of Memphis.

The new office will allow the McDonald Murrmann Center to offer its customers a spa-like atmosphere more conducive to relaxation and rejuvenation, rather than feeling like another routine medical procedure, the company said.

McDonald Murrmann's Racquet Club office will be headed by skincare specialist Sarah Carpenter, with assistant Miriam Dennie managing the administrative procedures and newly added esthetician Jeni Young providing spa services.

The center will host a champagne celebration in honor of the new location Dec. 6 from 3 p.m. to 8 p.m. at The Racquet Club, 5111 Sanderlin Ave.
